

1.1 Study Skill Tips for Success in Mathematics CYU

Read each question carefully.

1. What is your teacher's name? Mrs. Michelle Noble

2. What are your teacher's classroom location and prep hours? HS Rm 26
6th & 8th

3. What is one way to contact your teacher?

email

4. Do you have the name and contact information of at least one other student in your class? If yes, whom? If no, get one!

answers will vary

5. Is there a tutoring time available for this class? If yes, when?

Before school, homeroom, study hall, preps, after school

6. How did you feel about Algebra 1?

answers will vary

7. How did you feel about Geometry or Honors Geometry?

answers will vary

8. List some things that worked best for you in your previous high school math classes.

- answers will vary
- notes
  - practice
  - tutoring
  - group work
  - independent work
  - direct teach

9. List some steps that you can take if you begin having trouble understanding the material or completing a CYU.

answers will vary

ask for help, do more practice, watch videos

10. Where can you find additional practice exercises?

book, website, teacher

11. Where are the answers to CYU's?

website

12. Chapter Highlights are found at the end of each chapter. Find the Chapter 1 Highlights and explain how you might use it and how it might be helpful.

p. 69: help make a study cheat sheet; review for test

13. Chapter Reviews are found at the end of each chapter. Find the Chapter 1 Review and explain how you might use it and how it might be helpful.

p. 73: extra practice, test review, quiz review

14. Chapter Tests are found at the end of each chapter. Find the Chapter 1 Test and explain how you might use it and how it might be helpful when preparing for an exam on Chapter 1.

p. 76: self check for understanding before the test

---

CYU Reflection: How far can you go: basic, intermediate, or advanced?

Rate your mastery level!

How confident are you with the skills this CYU covered? Circle the score you would give yourself.

